HISTORY

In 1912, under the leadership of the late Henry Farber, a Congregation of local Jewry was formed in Weldon, N. C. Among its organizers were: Morris Freid, B. Marks, Hyman Sylvester, and S. Garfinkel, all now deceased. Also included were: William Farber of Roanoke Rapids, Louis Kittner and M. Josephson of Weldon.

The religious services of this group were confined mainly to the High Holy Days each year and Memorial Services on special occasions, all of which were held in private homes. The Torah, the Holy Scroll, was loaned to them by synagogues of nearby larger cities.

The Weldon Sabbath School for children and adults was established in 1924 with William B. Josephson, its organizer, as Superintendent. In more recent years, Ellis Farber has served as Director of the Sunday School and Adult Bible Class program.

Four years later the Synagogue of the Congregation had located at 133 Washington St., Weldon, and its name changed from the Weldon Sabbath School to The Hebrew Community Center of Weldon and Roanoke Rapids. In this location Friday Evening Sabbath Services, Sunday School, Bible Classes and High Holiday Services were conducted in a regular weekly and yearly program.

Since 1939, a rabbi has been obtained from the Jewish Theological Seminary of New York to conduct services during the High Holy Days. The guest rabbi is assisted by William Farber, local religious leader.

The Hebrew Community Center was a center for the religious and social activities of the immediate and surrounding Jewish community. The weekly Friday Evening Services are conducted by William Farber. Throughout the year, each member of the Congregation is called upon to participate in some form of the Weekly Services either by delivering the sermon, assisting in conducting, or by the saying of the Kiddush prayer.

The Sisterhood, headed by Mrs. Robert G. Liverman, has been largely responsible for the successful social activities of the Jewish Community. The women, too, are included in the group participation of Weekly Services by providing the Oneg Shabbat (refreshments) after Friday Evening Services.

March, 1954, marked the beginning of a new era in the progress and life of local Jewry. With Robert G. Liverman spearheading a movement for the construction of a new synagogue, property was then purchased for conversion to the new Temple Emanu-El. R. G. Liverman was later appointed Chairman of the Building Committee to see this project through. Serving as president during this important year was Harry H. Freid, under whose leadership the Temple was planned and completed.

The members of Congregation Temple Emanu-El are the proud heirs to the spiritual heritage handed down by the early founders of their Congregation. Their loyal and sincere devotion to Judaism and its teachings are reflected in the successful completion of their new and beautiful House of Worship dedicated to God . . . Temple Emanu-El.

FOREWORD

IF EVER there was an undertaking conceived by, worked for, and accomplished by a united group then our erection of Temple Emanu-El symbolizes such an achievement. And yet, despite the supreme efforts of our small Congregational membership as a unit, no mention of this glorious, Holy Edifice can be made without paying due tribute to two wonderful men.

First and foremost, the person of Charles P. Leavitt, Architect, whose enlightening vision carried us across the threshold of a doorway from dreams to reality. It was as though God himself sent him to us from Norfolk, Virginia to provide his talent and devotion as the necessary catalyst to our unsolved formulae from which this Temple was to emerge. Our building committee cannot bestow adequate praise to Charles P. Leavitt for his contribution to our task.

Secondly, and playing even a more active and equally important role, is Frank M. Rightmyer, Weldon Contractor and Builder, whose qualities of patience and perserverance are only overshadowed by his sincerity and overall knowledge of building supervision. It can truly be said that Frank M. Rightmyer has already served our Congregation far beyond any call to mere duty. His time and efforts in this project are beyond measurement in weighing the contributions that have made Temple Emanu-El possible.

To these two men especially, we of the Building Committee extend our humble thanks.

I should like to commend and thank the other members of my Committee for their unselfish service and cooperation. Each of them can rightfully look on this building with pride as a "job well done". I, personally, wish to express my sincere thanks to our President and to the entire Congregation for the honor and privilege of heading this Committee. It is my sincere hope that we have fulfilled your expectations and justified your faith in us in the completion of this structure, our Temple Emanu-El.

ROBERT G. LIVERMAN
Chairman Building Committee

President's Message

To Our Members and Friends,

The Congregation of Temple Emanu-El was organized in 1912 and was formerly known as the Weldon Sabbath School and the Hebrew Community Center. This Congregation has always been a center of Jewish teachings for northeastern North Carolina and the adjoining area of Virginia.

It is fitting at this time that I recognize the Building and Finance Committees for their accomplishments of approving plans, financing, and seeing the building through to its completion in less than six months.

We are all privileged to share the glory and honor of our Beautiful Synagogue with you. I cannot fully express the joy and pride in our hearts as each of us rightly consider how we have joined our hands and efforts in order to have this tremendous step towards the advancement of Jewish culture, learning, and teachings in our Jewish Community.

Surely God's Blessings must have guided our Destiny.

Harry H. Freid
President, Temple Emanu-El
Weldon, N. C.

Greetings from North Carolina Association of Jewish Men

On behalf of the North Carolina Association of Jewish Men I am happy to bring you greetings and congratulations on this memorable occasion, and to wish for you an ever increasing awareness of both the privileges and responsibilities such a day entails.

This is for you a day of dreams come true, when you dedicate to God this new Temple of worship. Yet you will find that this dream, while today fulfilled in part, is not completely realized, because this accomplishment will mean an expansion of the dream. The deepened spirituality of your lives will create new needs and higher ideals, which will become part of the dream to be fulfilled in the future.

Your participation in the Circuit Riding Rabbi Project will bring immeasurable benefits to you and to your children, not only now but in the bright future ahead. This program will provide opportunities for spiritual growth and a more abundant community living, centered as it should be in your own temple.

I also bring you greetings from the other nine communities participating in this project (Hendersonville, Hickory, Jacksonville, Lumberton, Mt. Gilead-Albermarle, Rock Hill, S. C., Statesville, Wallace, and Whiteville), who rejoice with you on this occasion.

May this be the beginning of a richer, fuller, and more satisfying life than you have ever known before, both as individuals and as a community, and may God bless you in all your undertakings.

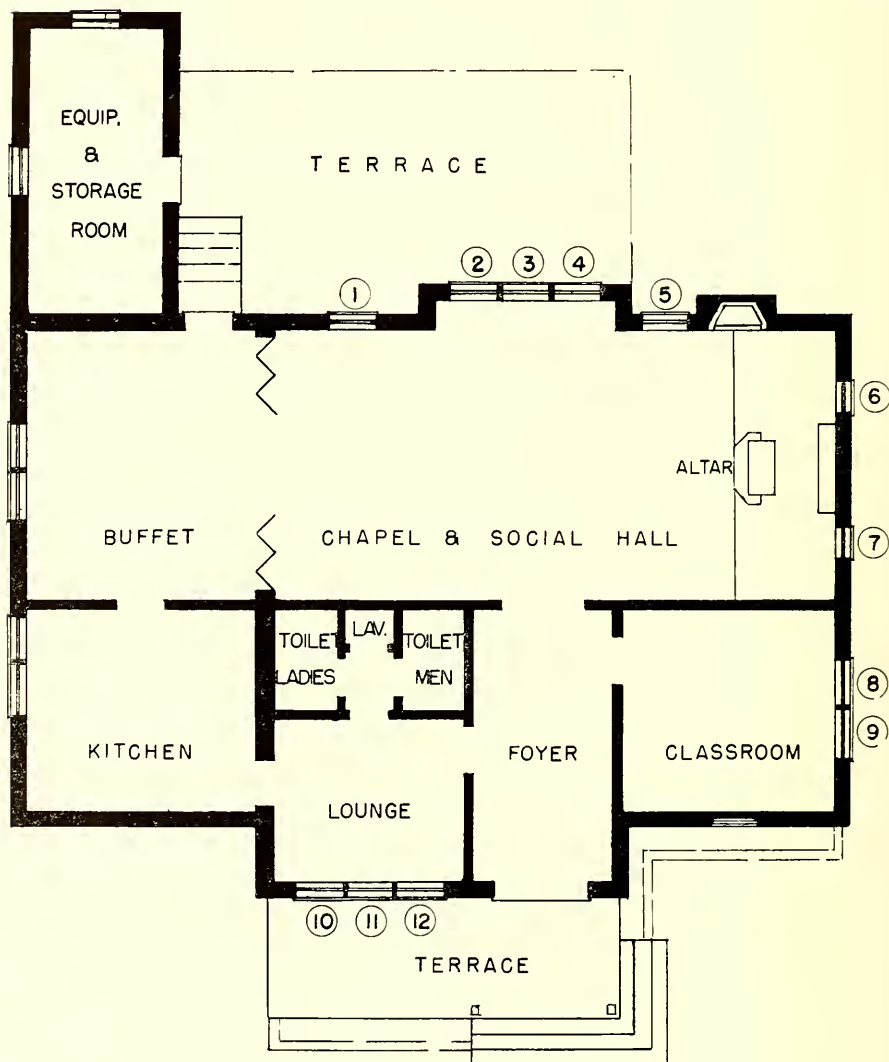

Cordially yours,

I. D. Blumenthal

I. D. Blumenthal, President

FLOOR PLAN OF TEMPLE EMANU-EL

Showing Location of Stained Glass Windows

Description and Significance of Stained Glass Windows In Temple Emanu-El, Weldon, N. C.

WINDOW NO. 1—SHOVUOS (The Feast of Weeks)

This window portrays the basket of first fruits which were brought to the Temple in Jerusalem at Shovuos time, in conformity with the Biblical mandate found in Deuteronomy, Chapter 26, verses 1 through 4.

WINDOW NO. 2—ROSH HASHONAH (The New Year)

This window portrays two Shofros (Ram's Horns) superimposed on the Book of Life. The blowing of the Shofar is the distinctive element in the Rosh Hashonah service. Jewish tradition emphasizes the belief that all mankind is inscribed for life or for death on the New Year day. The prayer is for inscription in the Book of Life.

WINDOW NO. 3—SABBATH

This window portrays the basic ritual objects used with the Friday evening meal in the home. These objects include the Sabbath candles, the Kiddush cup and the wine bottle and the Sabbath bread known as the "Chollah".

WINDOW NO. 4—YOM KIPPUR (Day of Atonement)

This window is dedicated to the concept of repentance, and portrays the court of the Temple. Between the columns is to be found the long red carpet bearing the words "Return O Israel".

WINDOW NO. 5—PESACH (Passover)

This window portrays symbolic foods in the Passover dish which are used at the traditional Seder service in the home during the Passover meals.

WINDOW NO. 6 AND 7—THE TORAH (The Law)

This window represents a Torah fully dressed with the breast-plate, the crowns and the pointer. The Torah comprises the first five Books of the Bible, the five Books of Moses.

WINDOW NO. 8—JEWISH EDUCATION

The concept of Jewish education is projected through a shelf of books, which includes both Hebrew and English works relating to Jewish religion and history.

WINDOW NO. 9—SUCCOS (Feast of Tabernacles)

This window represents the concept of Thanksgiving. Two hands are uplifted in an expression of thanks for the bounty of God, which is portrayed in a cornucopia full of fruit and vegetables.

WINDOW NO. 10—TEFILA (Prayer)

This window represents the basic articles of prayer used at the daily religious services. These include the prayer shawl, phylacteries and the prayer book.

WINDOW NO. 11—THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

This window shows two tablets of stone bearing the Ten Commandments superimposed upon the summit of Mount Sinai.

WINDOW NO. 12—SIMCHAS TORAH (Rejoicing of the Law)

This window represents the conclusion and the re-commencement of the reading of the Torah. One scroll is unrolled to the final paragraph of Deuteronomy; the other to the first paragraph of the Books of Genesis.

Greetings from Ministerial Association

To The Officers and Members
Of Congregation Temple Emanu-El:

As President of the Roanoke Rapids-Weldon Ministerial Association I extend sincere congratulations to the members of Temple Emanu-El on the completion of your lovely Synagogue. The Temple you have erected will stand for many generations to come as a monument to your broad vision and abiding faith in Spiritual Values.

Our civilization owes a debt to the Jews that is beyond human calculation. Those of us who represent the Christian Faith are keenly aware of the fact that we are building on a firm foundation laid by the Hebrews of the long ago. The Jewish people have left for all men a glorious heritage.

All the great Governments and strong Institutions of the earth are built and established on the laws set forth by the Leaders of Israel, under Divine inspiration. The Decalogue is the Magna Charta of the Moral Dignity of Man. Our modern society has been immeasurably enriched by the teachings of the Old Testament. The Democratic Ideals we cherish root back in the fertile soil of the Anchient Hebrews.

For these and all the rich contributions that have been and are being made to our Humanity we are deeply and profoundly grateful. May this Temple you have erected to the Glory of God and the Spiritual well-being of Man bring to all who worship here increasing joy and abiding peace. May the Lord richly bless you and keep you and cause His face to shine upon you.

Freedom of Worship

This year is being observed as the 300th anniversary of the arrival of the first Jewish settlers in North America in September 1654. They were escaping from the persecution of the Portuguese invaders who captured Recife, then the capital of Brazil, which contained the first organized Jewish community in South America.

Among the first acts of the first settlers in New Amsterdam in September 1654 was the creation of a "Synagogue" for public religious worship, and "Dedicated" their House of Prayer to the ideals of "Freedom of Worship" each according to the dictates of his own heart and conscience. Throughout these 300 years "Synagogues" from New Amsterdam to Weldon have been "dedicated" to this humane ideal, the ideal which contributed to the "Progress of Mankind" through religion.

We are too apt to credit the "Progress of Mankind" to science and invention and overlook the part played by religion. The destructiveness of war, for example, shows that science can be just as destructive of progress as it can be responsible for it. Religion, on the other hand, has not been destructive of progress because it is associated and interpreted at any given time with the mental development of contemporary people. Measured over the years, then, it has moved slowly, but always forward.

Freedom of Worship, accordingly, is every bit as important as freedom of scientific men to search for new things, every bit as vital as freedom of speech. In fact, freedom of worship might well be termed the basic freedom from which all others flow. Freedom of worship opens a direct avenue between man and his Creator. It raises man to such a high level that the institutions under which he lives must likewise respect him and grant him the freedoms that belong to him. These ideals motivated the refugees in New Amsterdam as the self-same ideals motivate Jewry in Weldon, Roanoke Rapids, and surrounding communities, as evidenced by the Midrashic quotation inscribed over the "Oron Kodesh" (Holy Ark) in this newly dedicated Temple Emanu-El—KNOW BEFORE WHOM THOU STANDEST! and in its Hebraic phraseology "DAH LIFNAY MI ATOH OMAID."

From the time of Abraham onward, freedom of religion has been a force in winning the freedom of mankind. It was for this freedom that the Children of Israel struck the first blow for human liberty by leaving Egypt. It was through freedom of religion that our own country won its Pilgrims and many successive groups of immigrants. It was our Biblical quotation from the Book of Leviticus that caused the Founding Fathers of our glorious Republic to inscribe on the "Liberty Bell" the rich words "And Thou Shalt Proclaim Freedom Throughout the Land to All the Inhabitants Thereof."

Freedom of worship is still not fully attained, however, merely when a man or woman is able to go to his respective house of worship at will and recite his prayers. Freedom of worship goes far beyond this and Temple Emanu-El stands dedicated to the noble Hebraic principle that demands no person be segregated or discriminated against because he worships as he does. It means the absence of hatred for another religion, the absence of fear of another religion, the absence of libel of other religious groups, the absence of bigotry.

As Jews we respect all good men and women regardless of their religious beliefs. Jewish happiness calls for more than a world in which freedom to worship God "each according to the dictates of his own conscience" is the right of every man.

May the dedication of Temple Emanu-El in Weldon, N. C., be one step closer to this blessed goal.

Word of Appreciation

The membership of Congregation Emanu-El wishes to express their thanks and appreciation to the many personal and business friends whose good wishes appear in this book in the form of advertisements. The magnificent response of these friends, as evidenced by the great numbers shown here, is indicative of the feeling that exists throughout in extending every good wish to us in the building of Temple Emanu-El in Weldon, N. C.
